

As we begin a New Year, the EBC Staff is praying for the Church Family. Below is the membership covenant of EBC as it was written and adopted in 1823. These same principles are still true today for members of the EBC Church family.

ARTICLE IV - Church Covenant - Adopted by Ebenezer Baptist Church, January 4, 1823.

"Whereas it is the incumbent duty of those who are favored with the dispensation of the grace of God to embrace His covenant, acknowledge His government, profess His name, and unite together in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel: We do now, as in the presence of the Great Eternal God, who knows the secrets of all hearts, and in the presence of angels and men, acknowledge ourselves to be under the most solemn obligation to be the Lord's, and we do solemnly covenant and agree:

"First, that we will take the only living and true God in three Persons - Father, Son, and Holy Spirit - to be our God.

"Secondly, we unreservedly and solemnly give up ourselves, both soul and body, and all we possess, to Almighty God to be ordered, directed, and disposed of by Him, according to the counsel of His Holy will. And this we do in a humble dependence on the grace of the Holy Spirit, to aid and support us in these sacred engagements.

"Thirdly, we take the scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be our rule of faith and practice, both in the great concerns of religion and the general affairs of life; and particularly for transacting the business of the church.

"Fourthly, we promise to maintain communion and fellowship with each other in the public worship of God, according to the various ordinances of the Gospel; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, but embracing all regular, convenient seasons for this purpose, as the providence of God shall permit. And that we will exercise Christian forbearance and love, one toward another: praying for, and sympathizing with each other, in the various circumstances of life, and using every laudable endeavor to provoke to love and good works.

"Fifthly, we promise individually, to pay a respectful regard to the advice and admonitions of the church, and to be subject to its discipline as directed by the Word of God, and conducted in the Spirit of the Gospel.

"Sixthly, we promise to contribute in a reasonable manner, according to our ability, for the support of public worship and the relief of the poor in the church and to use our influence to forward and promote the interest of the Redeemer's kingdom in the world; that we will be careful to conduct ourselves with uprightness and integrity and in a peaceful and friendly manner toward mankind in general and toward serious Christians of all descriptions, in particular; that we will also pay a conscientious regard to civil government, and give it our support, as an ordinance of God.

And this covenant we make, with the free and full consent of our souls, hoping through rich, free and boundless grace we shall therein be accepted of God, unto eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom be glory and majesty, power and dominion, everlasting. Amen."
